"Actions aimed to enhance the participatory role of Mediterranean small-scale fishing in the decision making and advisory processes at national and EU level"

CASE STUDIES WORK PLAN

Implementation period: May - December 2016

Tasks up to the facilitator:

1. Preparatory phase (May-September)

- identify the Case Study location (a port will be chosen on the base of the presence of Small-Scale fisheries, availability of a venue for the main Event, contacts with the fishers, logistic issues...)
- check the list of the vessels/fishers/companies/associations
- establish the contacts with the fishers in order to make them aware about the project and the event, involve them and collect information through semi-structured interviews and questionnaire; try to involve more "independent" fishers as possible (i.e. not associated to professional organizations), and "represented" fishers as well (associated to professional organizations)
- inform the local administration bodies, authorities, professional associations, research institutes about the project activities
- plan at least 2 (or more, if necessary) mutual meetings with the involved fishers
- analyze and discuss the collected data together the project coordinators
- cooperate with the other two Case Studies and the project coordinators.

2. Organization of a mutual learning Event (September-early November)

Manage and coordinate all activities necessary for the organization, in the port chosen in the preliminary phase, of a public workshop with mutual-learning features, with the active participation of the previously identified fishermen, who will be involved during the event in working groups and opportunities for the exchange of information/experiences. Representatives of professional organizations and competent public institutions, as well as sector experts will be invited to the event.

3. Sharing of the final results with the fishers and the other stakeholders (November-December)

Share the results of the case study with stakeholders, managers, experts, representatives of local and national interests. Drafting a report describing the results of both the technical contents and the organization issues.
